117th Congress Accomplishments

In the 117th Congress, the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs made critical progress toward achieving priorities identified by Native communities from across the country, securing the most dedicated funding in U.S. history, and ensuring that policies benefiting Tribes, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians were included in major pieces of legislation. Under Chairman Schatz’s leadership, the Committee held 50 events – surpassing the previous Congress by over a dozen – confirmed nominees for Assistant Secretary-Indian Affairs and the Indian Health Service, and passed 18 bills signed into law by President Biden. A more detailed description of these accomplishments and more is below.

LARGEST INVESTMENT IN NATIVE COMMUNITIES IN U.S. HISTORY

More than $73 billion in dedicated funding was secured for Native communities – the most in U.S. history. This historic investment flowed through five landmark laws – the American Rescue Plan Act, Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2022, Inflation Reduction Act, and Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023.

- Prohibits gaming on the land taken into trust.
CRITICAL POLICY UPDATES FOR NATIVE COMMUNITIES

Federal Resources To Help Keep Native Women and Families Safe

- Tribal Title in the 2022 VAWA Reauthorization
  - Maintains Tribal jurisdiction over crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, and violations of Tribal civil protection orders first put in place by the 2013 VAWA reauthorization.
  - Restores Tribal jurisdiction over crimes of child violence, sexual violence, sex trafficking, stalking, obstruction of justice, and assault of Tribal justice personnel committed by non-Indian offenders.
  - Ensures all Tribes, including those in Alaska and Maine, can exercise important jurisdictional tools to keep their communities safe.
  - Provides Tribes with improved access to critical VAWA implementation resources.

- The VAWA Technical Amendment Act of 2022
  - Clarifies that Native Hawaiian organizations have access to federal grants to serve survivors in their local communities.

Advance Appropriations for IHS in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023

- Protects IHS programs from essential service disruptions due to funding uncertainty and government shutdowns.
- Brings IHS into parity with other federal health care providers, all of which either receive advance appropriations or mandatory funding.
- Prevents other impacts of IHS funding uncertainty, including risk of downgraded credit ratings on commercial loans secured by Tribes and Urban Indian Organizations (UIOs), challenges related to recruitment and retention of healthcare providers, and increased administrative burdens and costs.
- Enables long-term planning to maintain orderly and continuous operations of critical health programs.
- Helps fulfill the federal government’s trust responsibility to provide Native Americans with quality health care.

New Native Behavioral Health Resources in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023

- Authorizes $80 million in annual appropriations for four fiscal years to support Native communities’ behavioral health needs.
- Ensures HHS consults with Tribes, confers with UIOs, and engages with the Native Hawaiian community on administration of this new non-competitive funding.
- Opens the door to delivery of funds through Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act contracts or compacts.
